

The car started scratching
my car from rightside side mirror

The car changed its lane to break in between the Ambulance and my car and started scratching my car from my car's rightside side mirror to the front fender from behind to be taken off.

The car started scratching my car from rightside side mirror

The car hit my car. I was hit by his car from behind in the middle of right side.
